

Racial Reconciliation Taskforce

Episcopal Diocese of MS

FIRST THURSDAYS
EACH MONTH

Gatherings

March 7

The Rev. Peter Gray and Dr. Woody Register

April 4

Virginia Murphy Giovanna Lopez

May 2

Dr. Grace Elizabeth Hale

June 6

Ellen Ann Fentress

The mission of the Church as stated in the catechism is
"to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ."

an hour of power to inform, cheerlead, organize,
and inspire actions for becoming more the Beloved Community in MS

MORE INFORMATION

www.dioms.org

sign up for link

andrews@dioms.org

2024

This awesome schedule is still evolving with new offerings each month.

The Racial Reconciliation Task Force of the Diocese of Mississippi takes the Church's mission seriously. This ministry of promoting racial healing is the crucial work God's people do to further the Gospel. The task force serves to amplify the bishop's ministry of reconciliation in the Diocese. These monthly gatherings are for one and all inspired by the Dream of God.

“What stories do we tell, and whose story gets told? -
A conversation on narrative change at Sewanee”

March 7 noon -1PM

The Rev. Peter Gray, University Chaplain
and Dr. Woody Register,
Director of the Roberson Project on Slavery, Race, and Reconciliation

Playback Memphis : Listening & Story Telling Practices

April 4 noon - 1 PM

Virginia Murphy, Founder and Ex. Director
Giovanna Lopez, Director of Training

"In the Pines: A Lynching, A Lie, A Reckoning"

May 2 noon - 1 PM

Dr. Grace Elizabeth Hale

is the Commonwealth Professor of American Studies and History at the University of Virginia. She is the author of three other books: "Making Whiteness: The Culture of Segregation in the South, 1890-1940;" "A Nation of Outsiders: How the White Middle Class Fell in Love with Rebellion in Postwar America;" and "Cool Town: How Athens, Georgia, Launched Alternative Music and Changed American Culture."

The Impact of Segregation Academies: Past & Present

June 6 noon - 1 PM

Ellen Ann Fentress

writes about Deep South politics and culture, looking for how big truths pulse in individual stories. The Steps We Take: A Memoir of Southern Reckoning is her most recent book.

WE'RE BECOMING A CHURCH THAT LOOKS AND ACTS LIKE JESUS.

The Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement

episcopalchurch.org/wearebecoming